

JUAN RYAN

MRS. JUAN RYAN

CIA Ousts N.J. Man Who Wed Irish Girl

CPYRIGHT

Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON — The Central Intelligence Agency has told Juan Ryan, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Ryan of 471 Center St., South Orange, that he will be dismissed from the agency's employ for marrying a woman who is not a United States citizen.

This was revealed by Rep. Hugh J. Addonizio (D-11th Dist) and confirmed today by Ryan's family. Addonizio called the action "completely unwarranted" and said he has asked Allen Dulles, head of the top-secret agency, for an explanation.

Ryan received the dismissal notice several days after he was married Feb. 11 in St. Francis Xavier Church, New York, to Irish-born Philomena O'Neill, 29. The notice gave him 90 days to find another job.

Approval Was Urged

Addonizio said that an extensive investigation of Mrs. Ryan before the marriage showed that she was not a security risk. Before the wedding, CIA agents recommended the marriage be approved.

Although there was sufficient time for a final decision to be made before the marriage, Addonizio said, "the deputy chief of the agency now has notified Ryan that his marriage prohibits further employment." Addonizio said the CIA's decision amounts to "inconsistent" treatment.

Served in Navy

Mrs. Ryan came to this country two years ago after having been admitted for permanent residence here under approved immigration procedure. She and her husband now live in Alexandria, Va.

Ryan joined the CIA last fall after completing a tour of active duty as a Navy lieutenant, junior grade. A graduate of Seton Hall Prep School, he attended Seton Hall University, was graduated from Georgetown University in 1951 and immediately entered the naval officers' training school in Newport, R.I.